

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 3

Thursday, March 5, 2015

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 2:30 p.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by the Reverend Henoc Paulicin, Sr., of Florida Conference of Seventh Day Adventists of Apopka, upon invitation of Rep. Campbell:

Our Father, although we may call You by different names there's no question that we're in agreement that You're God and there's none like You. We give You praise, honor, and glory this morning because of all the great things You have done and also because of who You are. As we stand before Your presence, we seek forgiveness for our thoughts, words, and deeds that have not pleased You and claim the promise that if we confess our sins You are faithful and just to forgive us of our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. We recognize that You hold the world in the palm of Your hands and are in control of the course of world events. You have placed us in positions of leadership and have given us positions of great responsibility and we commit to faithfulness and diligence in accomplishing what is expected of us.

Today we seek the wisdom that You alone provide. So implant in us the desire to make just decisions. May there be clear evidence of loving kindness and mercy in our legislating and leading. Let others be able to testify that we have walked humbly before God. Remove any spirit of partisanship that is in us and instill a spirit of bipartisanship and cooperation that results in outcomes that please You. Bless and protect Governor Rick Scott and Lieutenant Governor Carlos Lopez-Cantera, House Speaker Steve Crisafulli, Senate President Andy Gardiner, and all of the leaders and legislators in the House and Senate. Also send a blessing to the families and staff of every man and woman that You've chosen to serve in this government of the state of Florida. There are many difficult and controversial issues ahead of us so grant us Godly insight so that when all is over we'll have left a collective body of achievements that delights You and serves as a legacy that history applauds. And so now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy. To the only wise God, our Savior, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Please hear our prayer. Amen.

House Resolutions Adopted by Publication

At the request of Rep. Cummings—

HR 9007—A resolution recognizing March 2015 as "Lymphedema Awareness Month" in the State of Florida.

WHEREAS, lymphedema is an accumulation of lymphatic fluid which causes swelling in the arms, legs, or other areas of the body, affects both men and women, and can be inherited, and

WHEREAS, infants can be born with lymphedema due to congenital developmental abnormalities, and

WHEREAS, the swelling caused by lymphedema can lead to severe infection, loss of the use of limbs, and amputation, and patients who suffer from lymphedema must endure physical discomfort and disfigurement and the psychological distress caused by these complications, and

WHEREAS, compression is a critical component of lymphedema treatment without which patients are unable to manage their condition and are subject to disease progression, complications, comorbidities, and disabilities, and

WHEREAS, cancer patients, including those who have sarcoma, melanoma, and breast, prostate, gynecological, head, neck, and lung cancers, are one of the largest groups suffering from lymphedema, and

WHEREAS, recent studies have indicated that up to 40 percent of breast cancer patients may develop lymphedema after surgery and radiation, with the risk of onset continuing for many years after initial treatment, and

WHEREAS, lymphedema has no cure, can occur any time after surgery, infection, or trauma, and has severe financial, physical, and psychological impacts on patients, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That March 2015 is recognized as "Lymphedema Awareness Month" in the State of Florida to honor and support the courageous patients who are living with and coping with this debilitating condition.

—was read and adopted by publication pursuant to Rule 10.17.
